

Portrait of Mary Hyde

Date

1835

Primary Maker

Frederick R. Spencer

Medium

Oil on canvas

Description

Portrait of Mrs. William Hyde seated with her body turned slightly to her right, her gaze directed toward the viewer, her right arm resting on the arm of her chair, and her left hand holding a small book. She wears a dark dress with a white lace collar, a small pin at the neckline, two gold chains, a white lace cap, and a shawl trimmed with fringe. In the background red drapery is pulled to one side.

Dimensions

Framed: 34 1/4 x 27 1/4in. (87 x 69.2cm)