

Competitive Blowers

Date
before April 18, 1887

Primary Maker
Charles F. Smillie

Medium
Gelatin silver print

Description
Two young children standing near a stone wall and small trees, each is blowing on a dandelion. The child on the left is wearing a plaid knee-length smock or dress and a brimmed straw hat and is standing in profile. The child on the right is wearing the same style smock or dress in a solid color and is wearing a knitted scull cap.

Dimensions
Overall: 10 × 14in. (25.4 × 35.6cm)